Objectives:

To scale literacy initiatives, to create new service providers, entrepreneurs and basically literate women who can take advantage of the employment opportunities created in the areas. The project helps us to scale up the objective of establishing micro enterprises and setting up BDSP and VLSC new villages. With the help of skills acquired by women under the literacy program, one of the major bottlenecks of illiteracy will vanish thereby resulting in more and more no's of operating VLSC and BDSP. Apart from this new NTFP based, skills based income generating opportunities can explored and could possibly worked out with women as a result expanding the organizations hold in Jharkhand and a strong presence especially in the naxalite affected areas.

About the Project: This project is being initiated with the help of our funding partner Sir Dorabji Tata Trust (SDTT) in Bundu & Khunti. The project duration is of 3 years during which 50 literacy centres for women will be opened in Bundu & Khunti cluster. This is the first time that Udyogini has entered in the field of women literacy. In order to make this program successful, along with our funding partner, we also have Nirantar which has been engaged as a resource agency for training and development of human resources as well as monitoring and evaluation partner where Nirantar will be providing us technical support in MIS building, capacity building and monitoring. There are series of trainings and exposures in order to make a strong cadre of human resources necessary for smooth functioning of this program. The program focuses on building the women's capacity through reading, writing and using these skills in their day to day operations and taking initiatives and using these skills in their relevant context and empowering women through it.
